The Shaker style kitchen is both practical and stylish, providing ample storage and workspace, while the conservatory brings in plenty of natural light and offers a flexible space for a playroom or even a home office (depending on your needs). Upstairs, over two floors, you will discover four generously sized bedrooms, including a principal bedroom that benefits from its own ensuite, plus a well-appointed family bathroom that serves the remaining bedrooms. The property features gas central heating and double glazing throughout. There is also the added bonus of driveway parking for several cars, making life that little bit easier whether you have a growing family, regular visitors, or simply need extra space for your vehicles. The property benefits from a good size rear garden with an initial decking area and then mainly laid to lawn with both rear and side access. For those looking to put their own stamp on a property, there's potential to extend (subject to planning permission), giving you the flexibility to adapt the space as your needs change over time. With its practical layout, comfortable living spaces, and scope for future development, this home offers a rare combination of ready-to-move-into comfort and exciting potential.
