6 Acres at Jameston, Jameston

Tenby, Pembrokeshire

The parcel of land is located on the Northern outskirts of Jameston, a small village in south Pembrokeshire, found near the coast and being only a few miles from Manorbier and Lydstep. This land is classed as agricultural land only.

The seller has stipulated that the purchaser will be responsible for erecting a boundary fence, which is to be maintained by the purchaser.

In the centre of Jameston village, there is a public house called The Swanlake Inn. The pub backs onto the B4139 and there is a junction opposite with a green Wigwam Holiday sign, proceed up this road heading due north. Continue on this road passing the Wigwam entrance and Brumwell Garden Machine sign, until reaching the cross roads. The entrance to this land is on the right hand side, as identified by our JJ Morris for sale sign.

Situation

Approximately 6 acres of land situated just outside the popular coastal village of Jameston. The land is of mixed quality being mostly rough grazing. It benefits from having good road access, is ideal as a pony paddock and falls within the Pembrokeshire National Park.
