In addition to the main residence, the property benefits from a range of substantial outbuildings, providing excellent scope for workshops, storage, or conversion subject to the necessary consents.

For those looking to expand, further land is available by separate negotiation, making this an ideal choice for buyers with equestrian interests, hobby farming ambitions, or those simply desiring additional privacy. This is an exceptional chance to secure a substantial home in a truly breathtaking rural location, with the potential to create a remarkable residence that takes full advantage of its spectacular setting and extensive grounds.

The property is offered with no onward chain, inviting discerning buyers to realise their vision and breathe new life into this characterful home.

Separate Parcel of Approx 12 acres Available £100,000
