The current owners have extensively enhanced the property, combining generous architectural proportions with carefully considered contemporary finishes.

A magnificent reception hall provides an impressive introduction to the house, with a striking staircase forming a central architectural feature and setting the tone for the accommodation beyond. At the heart of the home is a beautifully appointed hand-painted kitchen, finished with premium stone worktops and centred around a substantial breakfast bar. Four generous reception rooms offer flexible formal and informal living.

Five beautifully proportioned bedrooms each benefit from en-suite facilities. The impressive indoor pool opens onto a private sun terrace and gardens, with an adjoining games room. A self-contained guest studio and two versatile upper-floor rooms provide further space for guests, work or leisure.

The garden offers considerable space for outdoor entertaining, recreation and relaxation with direct access to Meyrick Park Golf Course. To the front, electric gates open onto an extensive private driveway, providing generous parking and access to a substantial double garage.

The solar panels are fully owned by the current owners and generate additional income. Agency note: The property contains spray foam insulation; please contact the Agent for further details.
