HORLER

Property Summary

Situated on the highly sought-after Smiths Lane, west of Windsor town centre, this charming three-bedroom semi-detached home offers a wonderful blend of comfort, space and potential. The property is well presented throughout and features two inviting reception rooms, providing excellent space for relaxing and entertaining. The fitted kitchen is practical and well equipped, while three well-proportioned bedrooms and a family bathroom complete the accommodation. A standout feature is the generously sized west-facing rear garden, offering an ideal space for gardening, children to play or enjoying the sunshine. There is also potential to extend, subject to the necessary planning permissions, allowing the home to be tailored to your needs. The property further benefits from a side garage, a lovely front garden and off-road parking. Ideally located close to Windsor town centre, local schools, amenities and transport links, this is an excellent opportunity to create your ideal family home.
