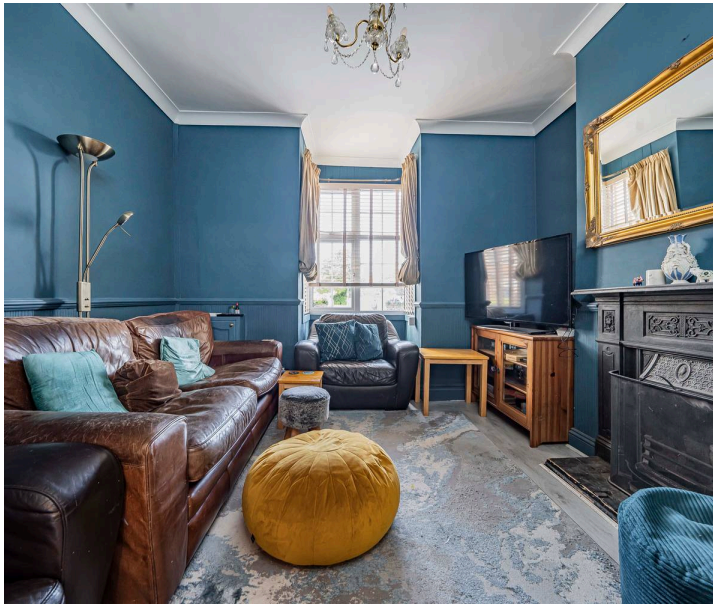
HORLER



Property Summary

Set on one of Datchet's most convenient residential roads, this spacious end-terrace home offers much more than a typical two-bedroom property, including two bathrooms, a versatile loft room and an impressive 100ft private rear garden. The station and village centre are both within easy walking distance. The ground floor features a bright living space, modern fitted kitchen and bathroom, while upstairs offers two generous double bedrooms and a second bathroom, creating a practical layout for families, sharers or those seeking additional convenience. A standout feature is the versatile loft room, ideal as a home office, guest room, hobby space or playroom. Outside, the approximately 100ft private garden provides excellent privacy, attractive views and plenty of space for entertaining or gardening. As an end-terrace, the property also benefits from convenient side access. Ideally located close to Datchet's shops, cafés, pubs and riverside walks, with excellent transport links.
