HORLER

Property Summary

Situated in the charming Church Terrace area of Windsor, this delightful two-bedroom terraced cottage beautifully combines period character, comfort and convenience. The property offers two spacious reception rooms, providing versatile accommodation for relaxing and entertaining, with a feature log-burning stove creating a warm and inviting focal point. Upstairs are two generously sized double bedrooms and a well-appointed bathroom, offering comfortable and practical living. Outside, the attractive rear garden provides a private space for relaxing, entertaining or al fresco dining. A particularly desirable feature is the off-road parking, rarely available in such a sought-after location. Ideally positioned close to local amenities, highly regarded schools and excellent transport links, the property is also within easy reach of Windsor town centre, with its excellent selection of shops, restaurants, cafés and historic attractions.
