Providing huge scope to add value through improvement, is this charming two storey, mid-19th century, three-bedroom house. Extended across both the ground and first floors, the property offers 1,168 sq ft of internal living space, providing generous and versatile accommodation for a growing family.

The house retains a wealth of attractive period features, including stripped wooden floorboards, feature fireplaces and traditional sash windows. These characterful details enhance its Victorian charm and provide an ideal foundation for a sympathetic renovation that blends original style with modern family living.

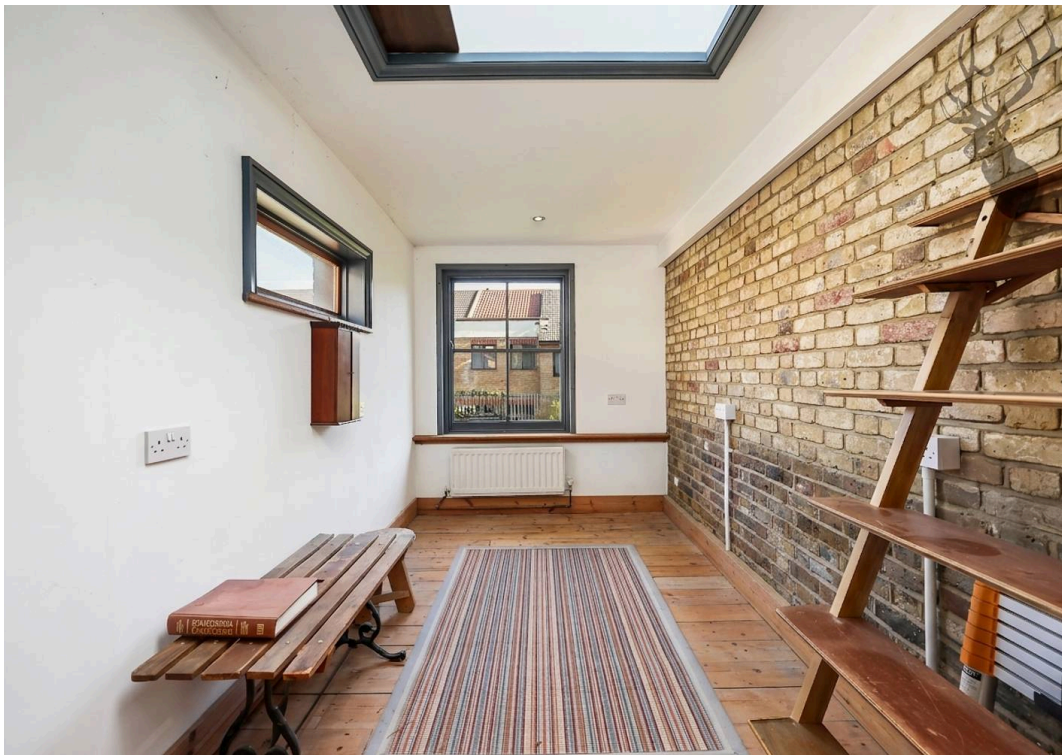

The ground floor features two separate reception rooms and a spacious kitchen-diner, while upstairs are three well-proportioned double bedrooms and a bathroom. A large private rear garden offers excellent outdoor space for entertaining, relaxing or family life.

Requiring a modest programme of renovation, the house presents an exciting opportunity for buyers to introduce their own style and create a beautiful long-term home in a sought-after East London location.
