Turflands, Croston
PR26 9RX

Delightful two bedroom semi-detached property, beautifully presented and maintained throughout, occupying an attractive position within a cobbled courtyard in the sought-after village of Croston. Enjoying gorgeous open views across the moss to the front, this is a lovely home in a particularly appealing setting, just a short stroll from the village amenities. The accommodation briefly comprises a welcoming lounge with feature electric fireplace, creating a cosy place to relax, whilst to the rear the dining kitchen provides space for everyday dining and benefits from patio doors opening onto the low-maintenance garden. Stairs rise to the first floor, where there are two bedrooms, the larger benefiting from fitted furniture, together with a modern bathroom. Both the front and rear enjoy lovely outlooks, adding to the appeal of this charming home. Externally, the property benefits from off-road parking and a garage with power, light and plumbing for additional appliances, offering useful storage and practical flexibility. With its beautiful open views, attractive courtyard setting and close proximity to all the amenities Croston has to offer, this property is sure to attract considerable interest. Beautifully presented and ready to enjoy, viewing is highly recommended.
