Wonderful three bedroom Victorian family home set on a peaceful residential road within the Medway Conservation Area.

Situated in trendy North Bow, just moments from the storied Roman Road with its multitude of cafe and coffee shop hotspots, as well as the ever-popular Victoria Park, this location also provides excellent connectivity with Mile End underground station nearby.

The property itself exudes period charm and features a magnificent through-reception providing plenty of space for living and dining. This leads out to a gorgeous fitted kitchen, which in turn opens out via bi-folding doors onto a south-west facing rear garden with a patio and lawn. There is also a handy WC/utility space on the ground floor.

Upstairs, the property enjoys three bedrooms and a contemporary bathroom, all set around an open hallway. The principal bedroom sits at the front of the house, is generously-sized and features wooden flooring and sash windows. The other two bedrooms are perfectly suited to children's bedrooms or work-from-home/guest spaces.

Available from 11th January 2027, this charming, furnished house is available to a couple or a small family.
